

A Fire Inside

I feel like an actor in my own life
Trying to remember the words just to fit in

But you can borrow my heart
'nd all I ask is that you keep it safe

When it's cold outside, will you be here?

Cause there's a fire burning inside
I don't know where to run and hide
I've called for you but there's no reply
Oh God, I hope I don't die...

(Bridge)

Tonight...

There's a fire burning inside
'nd I don't know where to run and hide
I've called for you but there's no reply
Oh God, I hope I don't die...

I feel like an actor in my own life
Trying to remember the words to fit in

When it's cold outside, will you be here?
When it's cold outside, will you be here?

Six Feet Under

Trying to see the sun in your eyes was harder than you'd ever realize
From being trapped in this cage, locked six feet under

But you are my Ace of Hearts. Please don't go too far
Up in the clouds is where we are so let's dance the night away

Because you are my song
And away with you is where I've gone
To a foreign place where nobody can erase...
You...

(Bridge)

Because you are my song
And away with you is where I've gone
To a foreign place where nobody can erase...
You...

Because up in the clouds is where we are, so let's dance the night away
I'm all strung up and ready to move with you

Guiding Light

Heading off into the night
Starry-eyed and ecstatic
Let the poetry flow right through you

Oooh...

I will be your...be your Guiding Light
I will be your...be your Guiding Light

Oooh...

Heading off into the night
The moon and stars shine so bright
Oooh...
When I look into your eyes, I hope you realize...that

I will be your...be your Guiding Light
I will be your...be your Guiding Light

Oooh...

Deep Blue

30 years have gone by and I have yet to feel this feeling
In a flash, like a lightning's crash, you've come rushing in

Oh sweet
Oh so sweet... Ooh
Are your magical eyes

They intoxicate me
You, you invigorate me
I used to blindfold myself with what I thought was affection
Then I thought...

Oh sweet
Oh so sweet... Ooh
Are your Deep Blue eyes
